. Heard.

2. The appellant has impugned the order passed by the learned Single Judge which upheld her termination during the period of probation.

2. The learned Single Judge has considered the case in proper perspective as it is a well settled principle in service jurisprudence that a person can be terminated during the period of probation if his services are not found to be satisfactory and that is exactly the case of the appellant-petitioner. Therefore, we do not find that there is any error or illegality committed by the learned Single Judge. The appeal, therefore, stands dismissed. No order as to costs.
